

Project "The Citizen and the State: Developing Partnership for Good Governance in Ukraine"

Ukrainian Resource Team

Denys Kovryzhenko
ALI Director of Legal Studies

Denys is the author and co-author of about 60 publications on legal issues in the areas of parliamentarism, elections regulation, referenda, parties' functioning, media and telecommunications, prevention of and counteractions to the corruption etc. Denys is the co-author of several bill drafts related to those areas. He has strong experience in developing and implementation of trainings for public authorities and NGOs. Denys holds Master's Degree in Law from Kyiv-Mohyla National University.

Inna Rudenkova
SESP Grant Manager

Inna has strong experience in creating and implementing community development programmes, designing and running seminars and workshops for various target groups. She also possesses experience in developing methodical provisions, as well as knowledge of social policy and social sector issues.

Olena Chebanenko
ALI Expert on Political and Public Issues

Olena is the author and co-author of numerous publications on electoral legislation, party building, local government, co-operation between the authorities and the community. She is experienced in developing and implementing trainings for state authorities and NGOs, as well as projects monitoring and evaluation techniques. Olena holds Master's Degree in Political Sciences and is a PhD student of Kyiv-Mohyla National University.

Olga Burlyk
SESP Expert on Strategic Planning

Olga is a professional psychologist with strong analytical skills and extensive experience in strategic planning. She has a good track record of designing and running courses in strategic planning; developing, organising and conducting surveys; preparing and making presentations. She is knowledgeable in motivational techniques and training to support the unemployed and vulnerable groups of population.

Sergey Sinyakin
Small and Medium Business Development/
Social Enterprise Expert

Sergey is an expert in small business and social entrepreneurship development. He has significant experience in development and conduction of trainings on business and entrepreneurship development, analysis of entrepreneurial factors, business planning, as well as taxation and legislation.

Valina Khudiarovskaya
SESP Executive Manager

Valina has significant experience in the community development work; establishing partnerships with local authorities and state organisations; developing, delivering and evaluating community mobilisation trainings.